Edward V. Williams

In 1966, [illegible] a Special Agent of the FBI sent David Peterson, resident of Baltimore, Maryland, held an annual celebration of the Russian Revolution. The said this celebration involved a picnic at Druid Ridge's residence and was attended by twenty-five to thirty Russian people. [illegible] said the highlight this affair was to commemorate the Russian Revolution, however it was held on the day that the communists celebrated all over the world. Peterson said that he had no specific information that Arvid Peterson was a communist.
